CITY NEWS.

ARRIVAL OF CARRIAGES.—Those who desire the Monday issue of the Democrat left at their residences will please notify the carriers or leave word at the office. The Monday edition will contain, beside the telegraphic news of Sunday night, all local and general news of interest up to the hour of going to press.

POLICE PROCEEDINGS.—Saturday, July 18.—Mary Fruney was presented, charged with being drunk and disorderly; bail in $100 for two months.

Dennis Daly, for being very disorderly in his conduct, was held to bail in $200 for six months.

Mary Jane Brown, for drinking too much mean whiskey and being very boisterous, was held over in $100 for three months.

The case against Charles Smith and R. E. Tucker, which was continued from the 10th of July, was called up. They were accused of being in the possession of over $200 of broken bank money, with the intention of passing it. The parties proved a good character, and also showed how they obtained the money. The parties, upon this proof, were discharged.

Charles McKinney, a city officer, was presented on an assault warrant, sued out by Joseph Newman, a soldier, who was wounded in the right arm. The proof showed that Newman was drunk and very disorderly on the street, and when ordered to leave by the officer, he collided him, upon which the officer struck the soldier on the head with a billy stick, after telling the soldier several times to release his grasp. The warrant was dismissed.

George Bauer was arrested charged with embezzling $17.50 from Fritz Allman. The proof did not show any felonious intent, and he was discharged upon paying the money taken back to Allman.

Several peace and ordinance warrants were disposed of.

JUDGE BRAMBLETT'S SPEECH AT THE COURT HOUSE.—Although it was prominently announced in the Journal for ten days, and large handbills were posted throughout the city stating that Judge Bramblett, the administration candidate for Governor, would speak at the Court House, last night not over two hundred persons were present, and among them we noticed a number of Democrats, who attended out of mere curiosity. His speech was received in a very cold manner, showing conclusively that the citizens of Louisville did not appreciate his views. In this speech he took about the same position as he did in his speech at Louisville, as reported in the Cincinnati Commercial. We have a full synopsis of the speech, which we will give in Monday's Democrat.

There was an exhibition of the Historical Society yesterday in the ladies parlors of the Masonic Temple. The attendance was poor, there being but very few ladies present. The display of fruits, flowers, &c., was excellent, and demanded fine prices. Our attention was more particularly called to a large and beautiful flower-basket, most beautifully arranged by Mrs. E. S. Carey. It was not sold.

HANDSOME.—We were presented yesterday with a large pair of magnificent horses, laid upon our table by Dick Moore, Esq. They were indeed beautiful, and most artistically arranged; and, while the fair one who put them together displayed unusual good taste in the selection of the flowers, Dick was none the less capable of displaying his good taste in presenting them to us. Richard, we "O U I."

The picnic given by the members of the St. John's (Catholic) Church, some time since, was a grand affair, and the best order was maintained throughout the day on the ground, every person present being delighted with the day's sport. The net proceeds derived from the picnic will exceed $1,400.

We acknowledge with pleasure the receipt of an invitation to attend a basket picnic to be given on the farm of Dr. Atchison, four miles from the city, on the Cane Run road, Wednesday, July 23d. It will be a nice affair, and we shall try to be present.

The first institution of the Sisters of the Good Shepherd ever established in this country was in this city, twenty-one years ago, which has prospered beyond expectation, and been the means of reforming many unfortunate females.

There was, indeed, very little business transacted in the city yesterday. Military rules and laws hold up at present, which, to some extent, puts "a damper" upon business. The city was very quiet and orderly.

Seventy-one rebel prisoners arrived in Covington from Lexington on Thursday. Most of them belonged to Morgan's gang, and were captured at Lebanon.

Officer Bligh arrested four persons yesterday who were charged with being suspected felons. They will appear in their usual dignity before the Police Court to-morrow.

Row Over.—A little boy was run over by a horse and buggy, on Third street near Jefferson, yesterday. His body was somewhat bruised, though no bones were broken.

Messrs. Eulich & Palmer, new dealers, and Mr. Hester, express messenger, have our thanks for Cincinnati and New York papers in advance of the mail.

Captain Smith, who has been in the past few days under military arrest, has been honorably released from all charges preferred against him.

A lot of rebel prisoners—privates and non-commissioned officers—will be sent to Camp Chase, Ohio, to-day or to-morrow.

A two-story frame house was consumed by fire in Jeffersonville yesterday morning.

CLARKSVILLE, TENN.,

Friday, August, July 17, 1863.

MOVING EAST.—The Cumberland river has commenced receding. In the last twenty-four hours it has fallen very rapidly. Navigation, however, remains good.

The scout sent across the river Wednesday night returned this afternoon. The Eighth Kentucky cavalry was under command of Capt. Whipple, and the portion of the Twenty-Eighth Kentucky mounted infantry, commanded by Capt. Benson. The scout, in two columns, penetrated the country, scoured Yellow creek, and were in the vicinity of Clarksville.

The men were fired upon four different times at different points. At each place our boys returned the fire, and gave rapid pursuit, but our horses being jaded with a long ride, were unable to keep up with the rebels, and the rebels were able to escape. The chase was quite exciting, and many horses were broken down with the long runs. At one place the cavalry charged so suddenly that they succeeded in capturing ten stand of arms and three prisoners. The prisoners belong to the Tenth (rebel) Tennessee cavalry. Their names are L. B. Nichols, W. J. Nesbet and J. M. Dodson.

Lodson is a Second Lieutenant. Another prisoner was captured, W. H. Hunt, who formerly belonged to Woodward's regiment, but who was captured by the Provost Marshal on oath and $5,000 bonds. Since that time he has been connected with a guerrilla band, and has made himself noted as a home-bird. He is now in the hands of the military commission.

Captain Whipple reports that there are now two companies of the Tenth Tennessee cavalry over on Yellow creek recruiting and collecting forage.

Forrest's company, which Jack Henson is also over there, roving about and doing all the devilment possible.

Report reaches us that Capt. Donelson, that Pillow has again turned up in Tennessee. He is now reported at Macedonia with a considerable force. It is out a matter of mere conjecture, in fact, it may prove only a rumor.

Proclamation.

All persons owning or having dogs in their possession, are hereby notified to confine them within their premises for the period of sixty days from this date. Any person neglecting to do so, will be liable to a fine of twenty dollars and costs.

WORLD'S FAIR, LONDON, 1863.—The highest premium has been awarded for the Wheeler & Wilson Sewing Machines at the World's Fair, recently held in London, England, with all other sewing machines. This result was not unexpected of course, but is still highly complimentary to American genius, and a triumph more noteworthy considering the public sentiment in England. This marked recognition of this machine not only adds to the prestige, continuing, as it does, the success of the Wheeler & Wilson Sewing Machine, but it also gives the public that if any sewing is done Wheeler & Wilson's is the machine to do it.
